

Internal displacement - Bihsud & Day Mirdad - Wardak Province (24 May 2010)

Displacement from Behsood I&II and Day Mirdad of Wardak Province - 24 May 2010

- Province boundary
- District Boundary
- Road
- Place of origin
- Place of displacement
- Movement direction

708 families originally from Sar-e-Tanoor, Sar-e-Tala, Charpakhsa, Dasht-e-Abdul Khaliq, Dahan-e-Garmab & Shar-e-Niro villages/settlements of Hisa-I- Awali Bihsud (Behsood I) district were reported as displaced. Of which, 400 families fled to safer southern areas within the district (mainly to Sia Sang, Jamil, Awdila & Dan-e-Tanor villages/settlements) and an approximately 308 families to Kabul city (Dasht-e-Barchi) and 5 families to Bamyan

300 families originally from Kajab-e-bala, Mir Hazara & Bad Asya villages/settlements of Markazi Bihsud (Behsood II) district were displaced. All of the families were fled to safer villages in south and west of Kajab valley within the district (mainly to Paye-e Kotal-e-Mollah Yaqob and surrounding villages and Moshak Valley)

800 families originally from Day Mirdad-ed-Bala, Day Mirdad-e-Payin & Tizak villages/settlements of Day Mirdad district were reported displaced. Of which, all the families reportedly fled to Kabul city (Dasht-e-Barchi)