

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

THE LAW ON FOREIGNERS

Official Gazette of the Republic of Macedonia No. 35 dated 23 Mart 2006

the law entered into force on 31 March 2006
and shall be implemented starting from 1 April 2007

CHAPTER I
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Subject of the Law
Article 1

This law governs the requirements for entry into, exit from and stay of foreigners in the Republic of Macedonia as well as their rights and obligations.

Definition of the concept of foreigner
Article 2

A foreigner, in the context of this law, shall mean a person who is not a citizen of the Republic of Macedonia.

A foreigner shall also mean a stateless person, that is, a person who is regarded by no country as its own citizen as in accordance with its national law.

Scope of application
Article 3

The provisions of this law shall apply for all foreigners, except for those who:

- seek protection from the Republic of Macedonia in accordance with the Law on Asylum and Temporary Protection unless this law provides otherwise,
- enjoy privileges and immunities according to the international law, provided the application of this law is contrary to the international obligations undertaken as well as the principle of reciprocity.

Legal status of foreigners
Article 4

During their legal stay in the Republic of Macedonia foreigners shall have the same rights and obligations as those of the citizens of the Republic of Macedonia, unless law provides otherwise.

During their stay in the Republic of Macedonia foreigners are obliged to comply with the Constitution of the Republic of Macedonia, the laws, other regulations and general documents of the state authorities as well as with the obligations arising from ratified international agreements.

Relation of the Law with international rules
Article 5

This law shall be applied in accordance with the international agreements ratified by the Republic of Macedonia as under the Constitution which bring foreigners in a more favourable position.

Application of the Law on General Administrative Procedure
Article 6

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

In procedures undertaken as in accordance with this law, the provisions of the Law on the General Administrative Procedure shall be appropriately applied, unless this law provides otherwise.

Control of movements and stay of foreigners
Article 7

The control of movements and stay of foreigners in the Republic of Macedonia shall be exercised by the Ministry of Internal Affairs, unless other authority is delegated such jurisdiction by law.

Migration policy
Article 8

The Assembly of the Republic of Macedonia shall, upon proposal of the Government of the Republic of Macedonia, bring a resolution on migration policy specifying situations, problems as well as measures to be undertaken in the field of migration.

CHAPTER II
ENTRY AND EXIT

Border crossing
Article 9

A foreigner shall be assumed to have legally entered into the Republic of Macedonia when s/he crosses the state border and, upon border control at border crossing points, is allowed entry into the Republic of Macedonia.

A foreigner may enter into the Republic of Macedonia and leave its territory only at designated border crossing points at hours and in a manner being in accordance with the purpose of such a border crossing point.

As an exception of paragraph 2 of this Article, a foreigner may also enter the Republic of Macedonia under conditions and in a manner as specified by law.

A foreigner's stay in the airport transit area in the Republic of Macedonia shall not be considered as entry into the country.

A foreigner's stay on board of a ship anchored at a lake port shall also not be considered as entry into the Republic of Macedonia.

Border control
Article 10

A foreigner shall be subjected to border control by the Ministry of Internal Affairs at entry and exit from the Republic of Macedonia as under conditions and in a manner as specified by law.

A foreigner may, as under conditions as specified by law, be subjected to border control during his/her stay in the transit area of the border crossing point of the Republic of Macedonia.

I. Entry requirements

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

1. General entry requirements

Article 11

A foreigner may enter the Republic of Macedonia, if s/he:

- possesses a valid and recognized travel document,
- possesses a valid visa, if required,

- if s/he is expelled from the Republic of Macedonia, or
- when the time limit of maximum 3 (three) months in any half-year period expires as from the date of first entry, provided there is no visa requirement for entry into the Republic of Macedonia.

Article 28

A foreigner who possesses several travel documents is obliged to leave the country with the travel document s/he has used for entry or its substitute which is accepted by the Republic of Macedonia.

CHAPTER III
VISA

Definition of visa
Article 29

A visa is, in the context of this law, an authorisation issued by a competent authority of the Republic of Macedonia to a foreigner by which, provided conditions as stipulated in Article 11 paragraph 1 indent 1, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of this law are fulfilled, s/he may:

- enter and stay on its territory for the period indicated in the visa, or
- pass through its territory or the international airport transit area in the Republic of Macedonia, provided s/he meets the relevant requirements.

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

A foreigner may stay in the Republic of Macedonia only for the purpose indicated in the visa.

A foreigner must obtain a visa prior to his/her entry into the country.

A foreigner may not enter an employment relationship, work or become self-employed on the territory of the Republic of Macedonia on the basis of the visa issued.

I. Types of visa

Definition of types of visa

Article 30

Types of visa are the following:

- airport transit visa (visa A)
- transit visa (visa B)
- short-stay visa (C), and
- long-stay visa (D)

The transit visa (visa B) and the short-stay visa (visa C) in accordance with Article 35 of this law may be issued as a group visa and may also be issued at border crossing points as under the conditions as stipulated in Article 36 of this law.

Airport transit visa (visa A)

Article 31

A foreigner who does not leave the airport international transit area or are on board during their stay at an airport of the Republic of Macedonia, shall not be subjected to visa requirements.

In exceptional cases the Government of the Republic of Macedonia may decide on necessity of meeting airport transit visa requirements for nationals of certain countries or travellers coming from certain travel routes, if national interests of defence, security or international relations of the Republic of Macedonia require so.

The visa as under paragraph 2 of this Article entitles a foreigner to stay at the airport international transit area until s/he continues his/her onward journey by his/her first following international flight.

A foreigner's stay at the international airport transit area in the Republic of Macedonia based on visa as under paragraph 2 of this Article, shall not be regarded as entry into its territory where the foreigner concerned may not leave such an area.

Transit visa (visa B)

Article 32

Transit visa shall be issued to a foreigner for a single or double and, in exceptional cases, multiple transits through the territory of the Republic of Macedonia from a certain foreign country to a certain third country where s/he may stay on its territory for maximum 5 (five) days during each individual transit.

A transit visa can be issued to a foreigner only if the foreigner concerned proves his/her admission to the country s/he enters from the Republic of Macedonia.

The period of validity of transit visa may not be longer than one year.

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

Short-stay visa (visa C)
Article 33

Short-stay visa shall be issued to a foreigner for a single or multiple entry into the Republic of Macedonia where a single continuous stay as well as the total duration of his/her subsequent stays in the Republic of Macedonia may not exceed a period of 3 (three) months in any half-year period as from the date of first entry.

A short-stay visa shall be issued for a period of validity of up to one year.

As an exception to paragraph 2 of this Article, a short-stay visa may be issued for a period of validity of more than one year, if it is relevant to the interests of the Republic of Macedonia which shall be decided by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

The visa as of paragraph 1 of this Article shall be issued for touristic, business, personal and other purposes.

The purpose of the visa shall be clearly indicated in the visa itself.

Long-stay visa (visa D)
Article 34

Long-stay visa may be issued to a foreigner who intends to stay in the Republic of Macedonia based on the grounds as under Article 49 of this law.

The visa as of paragraph 1 of this Article shall be issued for a single entry into the country entitling a stay of up to 30 (thirty) days and valid for a period of up to 6 (six) months.

The visa as of paragraph 1 of this Article shall be issued when the foreigner concerned submits a decision on grant of temporary residence in the Republic of Macedonia issued by the Ministry of Internal Affairs together with his/her visa application

A foreigner to whom a long-stay visa is issued is obliged to report him/herself to the Ministry of Internal Affairs within 5 (five) days as from the date of entry into the Republic of Macedonia where the Ministry shall issue such a foreigner a temporary residence permit within 25 (twenty-five) days as from the date of reporting.

Group visa
Article 35

Transit visa and short-stay visa entitling a stay of up to 30 (thirty) days may be issued as a group visa.

Group visa shall be issued to a group of foreigners between minimum 5 (five) and maximum 50 (fifty) persons who come together to the Republic of Macedonia as a group with a joint travel document as well as stay and leave its territory together as a group.

Visa issued at border
Article 36

Transit visa and short-stay visa entitling a stay of up to 15 (fifteen) days may be issued, as an exception, at border crossing point, if it is relevant to the national interests of the Republic of Macedonia or based on humanitarian grounds or if it provided by ratified international agreements.

Upon prior consent of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs the visa as of paragraph 1 of this Article shall be issued by the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

The visa as of paragraph 1 of this Article can be issued only for a single entry into the Republic of Macedonia, if:

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

- the foreigner concerned meets the requirements for entry into the Republic of Macedonia as under Article 11 paragraph 1 indent 1, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of this law,
- s/he presents documents proving unforeseeable and urgent reasons for entry into the Republic of Macedonia, and
- his/her return to the country in which s/he resides or from which s/he enters the Republic of Macedonia is ensured.

II. Issue of visa

Visa application
Article 37

Visa shall be issued upon a foreigner's application submitted with a diplomatic or consular mission of the Republic of Macedonia abroad.

The foreigner concerned must indicate the purpose of his/her visit to the country in the application as of paragraph 1 of this Article, submit a valid and recognised travel document and, if required, documentation as under Article 38 paragraph 1 indent 2 and 3 of this law.

The visa application must include a photograph of the foreigner concerned presenting his/her genuine appearance.

Visa requirements
Article 38

Visa may be issued to a foreigner, if s/he:

- has a valid and recognised foreign travel document to be valid for a period at least 3 (three) months longer than the visa validity,
- upon request of a competent authority, s/he submits documentation proving the purpose and circumstances of the intended visit in the Republic of Macedonia including the documents for travel insurance,
- upon request of a competent authority, s/he submits documents proving his/her possession of sufficient subsistence means during his/her stay in the Republic of Macedonia as well as return to the country from which s/he arrives or his/her journey to a third country or documentation proving that such means are ensured in any other legal way,
- does not present a threat to the public peace and order, national security, public health or the international relations of the Republic of Macedonia, and
- there are no grounds for entry denial as under Article 23 of this law.

As an exception of paragraph 1 of this Article, a foreigner may be issued a visa even if visa requirements are not met, if based on humanitarian grounds, national interests or obligations arising from ratified international agreements.

A foreigner who is under 18 and intends to stay in the Republic of Macedonia unaccompanied by his/her parent or guardian, apart from documentation as of paragraph 1 of this Article, s/he must also submit a certified permission of his/her parents or guardian for entry and stay in the Republic of Macedonia together with the visa application.

Competent authorities for decision-making and issue of visas
Article 39

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

Issue of visas shall be decided upon by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Macedonia and visas shall be issued by diplomatic or consular missions of the Republic of Macedonia abroad.

As an exception to paragraph 1 of this Article, the Ministry of Internal Affairs may issue visas as under Article 36 of this law at border crossing points.

In cases where there is a suspicion that the foreigner concerned presents a threat to the public order and national security of the Republic of Macedonia, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs is obliged to ensure a prior consent of the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

Interview with visa applicant
Article 40

Prior to issue of visa, the diplomatic or consular mission of the Republic of Macedonia abroad shall invite the visa applicant to appear in person for an interview to explain the reasons indicated in the visa application, especially if there is a suspicion as to the purpose of his/her visit or his/her intention to return to the country from which s/he arrives.

In cases as under paragraph 1 of this Article, the foreigner concerned is obliged to appear in person and if s/he fails to do so, his/her visa application shall be rejected.

As an exception, when the visa applicant is a known person or there is a long distance to the diplomatic or consular mission and there is no doubt as to the applicant's bona fide intentions as well as in case of larger groups possessing a guarantee for their bona fide intentions from a trustworthy subject (travel agency, touristic operators and other legal entities), the diplomatic or consular mission of the Republic of Macedonia abroad may decide not to invite the visa applicant to appear in person.

III. Form and contents of visa
Article 41

Visa is an authorisation issued in a form of a sticker to be attached in the travel document.

Visa contains:

- the foreigner's name and surname,
- the foreigner's date of birth,
- type of visa,
- period of visa validity,
- duration of stay in the Republic of Macedonia,
- number of entries,
- the foreigner's passport number,
- the foreigner's citizenship and sex,
- date and place of issue of visa,
- visa fee,
- comments made by issuing authority,
- stamp of issuing authority and signature of authorised official,
- machine readable area, and
- place for photograph.

The visa shall contain in-built security features.

Information and data indicated in the visa issued may not be erased or altered.

IV. Extension and reduction of visa validity

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

Visa extension
Article 42

Short-stay and long-stay visa may be extended on one occasion, where upon extension, the total duration of stay of the foreigner concerned in the country may not be longer than 3 (three) months.

In case of extension of a visa, the purpose of the visit may not be altered.

Visa may be extended due to force majeure, based on humanitarian grounds as well as for serious professional or personal reasons related to the foreigner concerned

Visa shall be extended by the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

Visa reduction
Article 43

The Ministry of Internal Affairs may, upon a prior consent of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, reduce validity of a visa issued at border, if it establishes that the foreigner concerned possesses insufficient subsistence means for his/her stay determined in the Republic of Macedonia.

V. Annulment and revocation of visa

Visa annulment
Article 44

A visa shall be annulled in cases where:

- it is additionally established that at the time of issuing the visa the foreigner concerned did not meet some of the visa requirements as established by this law,
- it is established that s/he no longer meets visa requirements,
- in the visa application the foreigner has supplied false data on his/her identity, purpose and circumstances for his/her travel and stay or other false data or s/he has used false, another person's or invalid travel or other identification documents, or
- s/he is deprived of his/her right to residence or is expelled from the Republic of Macedonia.

Visa shall be annulled by the Ministry of Internal Affairs and in case the foreigner concerned has not entered the Republic of Macedonia yet, such a visa shall be annulled by the issuing diplomatic or consular mission of the Republic of Macedonia abroad.

Visa annulment shall be clearly indicated in the foreigner's travel document.

The foreigner who stays in the Republic of Macedonia and whose visa is annulled is obliged to leave the territory of the Republic of Macedonia immediately.

Visa revocation
Article 45

Visa shall be revoked if it is additionally established that the competent issuing authority has issued such a visa by error or lapse whilst there are reasons for denial of entry of the foreigner concerned into the Republic of Macedonia.

In case of visa revocation, the visa shall be deemed as never issued.

Visa shall be revoked at the border crossing points by the Ministry of Internal Affairs and in case the foreigner has not entered the Republic of Macedonia yet, it shall be revoked by the issuing diplomatic or consular mission of the Republic of Macedonia abroad.

Visa revocation shall be clearly indicated in the foreigner's travel document.

CHAPTER IV RESIDENCE

Definition of residence

Article 46

Residence of foreigners, in the context of this law, shall mean:

- 1) stay of up to 3 (three) months,
- 2) stay based on temporary residence permit, and
- 3) stay based on permanent residence permit.

I. Stay of up to three months

Definition of stay of up to three months

Article 47

Stay of up to 3 (three) months shall, in the context of this law, mean a stay of a foreigner holding or not holding a visa, unless this law or a ratified international agreement provides otherwise.

A foreigner who is a citizen of a country with which the Republic of Macedonia has established a visa free policy, may enter and stay in the Republic of Macedonia for a period of up to 3 (three) months in any half-year period as from the date of first entry, provided that s/he meets the entry requirements as stipulated by this law.

The foreigner as of paragraph 2 of this Article may stay in the Republic of Macedonia for the same purposes as those provided for foreigners who are subjected to visa requirements.

II. Stay based on temporary residence permit

Temporary residence permit

Article 48

A foreigner must possess a temporary residence permit if s/he intends to stay in the Republic of Macedonia for more than 3 (three) months or for purposes as stipulated in Article 49 of this law.

Reasons for issue of temporary residence permit

Article 49

Temporary residence permit may be issued to a foreigner who intends to stay in the Republic of Macedonia for the following purposes:

- employment, work or self-employment,
- attending school or studies,
- participation in international student/pupil exchange schemes,
- specialization, vocational education or practical training,
- scientific researches,
- medical treatment,
- family reunification, or
- humanitarian grounds.

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

Temporary residence permit may also be issued to:

- a foreigner who is a close family member of a citizen of the Republic of Macedonia;
- a foreigner who is from the Republic of Macedonia by origin, or
- a foreigner's child born in the Republic of Macedonia.

Temporary residence permit shall be issued for a specific purpose and specific period of time.

The foreigner who is granted temporary residence for a specific purpose may stay in the Republic of Macedonia only for the purpose for which his/her residence is granted.

Conditions for issue of temporary residence permit
Article 50

A foreigner may be issued temporary residence permit in the Republic of Macedonia, if s/he:

- possesses subsistence means or his/her subsistence is ensured in any other legal way,
- has accommodation ensured or has means for accommodation,
- has a health insurance,
- fulfils the conditions provided for different types of temporary residence permit, and
- there are no grounds for entry denial as under Article 23 of this law.

A foreigner who is under 18 and intends to stay in the Republic of Macedonia unaccompanied by his/her parents or guardian, apart from fulfilling the conditions as of paragraph 1 indent 1 to 4 of this Article, must also submit a certified permission of his/her parents or guardian for entry and stay in the Republic of Macedonia.

II. 1. Procedure of issue of temporary residence permit

Temporary residence application
Article 51

Temporary residence permit shall be issued upon an application of a foreigner who intends to stay in the Republic of Macedonia.

As an exception, in cases as stipulated by this law, temporary residence permit shall also be issued upon application of other natural person.

Temporary residence application shall be submitted by the foreigner with the diplomatic or consular mission of the Republic of Macedonia abroad.

In exceptional cases, based on humanitarian grounds as well as in other cases as stipulated by this law, temporary residence application may also be submitted to the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

The applicant is obliged to appear in person to an interview, if the competent authority requests so.

The application as of paragraph 1 of this Article must indicate the purpose and circumstances of the intended stay in the Republic of Macedonia which may not be altered during the procedure.

A foreigner is obliged to submit a valid and recognised travel document or a certified copy of such a document to be valid for at least 3 (three) months more than the period of his/her stay in the Republic of Macedonia together with his/her temporary residence application as well as evidence that conditions as under paragraph 1 indent 1 to 4 of Article 50 of this law are fulfilled.

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA

Procedure of diplomatic or consular mission upon application
Article 52

The diplomatic or consular mission of the Republic of Macedonia abroad receiving a temporary residence application of a foreigner shall forward such an application to the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

The diplomatic or consular mission of the Republic of Macedonia abroad shall not receive the application as of paragraph 1 of this Article if the required documentation as stated in Article 51 paragraph 7 of this law is not supplied together with such an application.

Competence for decision-making
Article 53

The Ministry of Internal Affairs shall bring a decision on temporary residence application.

The decision as of paragraph 1 of this Article shall be delivered to the foreigner concerned through the diplomatic or consular mission of the Republic of Macedonia abroad receiving such an application.

Against the decision as of paragraph 1 of this Article, a foreigner has a right to lodge a complaint to the competent Commission of the Government of the Republic of Macedonia within 8 (eight) days as from the date of receipt of such a decision.

The decision of the competent Commission of the Government of the Republic of Macedonia shall be brought within 30 (thirty) days as from the date of lodging such a complaint.

Against the decision of the competent Commission of the Government of the Republic of Macedonia an administrative dispute may be initiated in front of a competent court in accordance with the Law on Administrative Disputes.

Decision on grant of temporary residence
Article 54

If the foreigner fulfils the conditions for issue of temporary residence permit as stipulated by this law, the Ministry of Internal Affairs shall bring a decision on grant of temporary residence.

A foreigner who is issued a decision on grant of temporary residence, shall be issued a temporary residence permit by the Ministry of Internal Affairs upon his/her entry into the Republic of Macedonia.

The Ministry of Internal Affairs shall issue a temporary residence permit to the foreigner concerned in person.

Article 55

A foreigner must obtain a decision on grant of temporary residence in the Republic of Macedonia prior to his/her first entry into its territory on grounds for such a decision, except in cases as stipulated by this law.

Article 56

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

Temporary residence permit entitles a foreigner to multiple entries into and exits from the Republic of Macedonia without a visa until his/her residence permit expires.

Extension of temporary residence permit

Article 57

Temporary residence permit shall be issued for the period necessary to fulfil the purpose of the stay, however, not exceeding one year.

Upon an application of a foreigner, which is to be submitted within maximum 30 (thirty) days prior to expiry of his/her temporary residence permit, it may be extended provided that the conditions stipulated in Article 50 of this law are fulfilled where each individual extension may not be longer than one year.

A foreigner, who submits an application for extension of temporary residence permit within the time limit as of paragraph 2 of this Article, may stay in the Republic of Macedonia until the final decision on such an application is reached where the Ministry of Internal Affairs shall issue such a person a special receipt entitling such a stay in the Republic of Macedonia until the relevant decision.

Temporary residence permit shall not be extended if it is established that the foreigner concerned has not stayed in the Republic of Macedonia for unjustified reasons for a period longer than one quarter of the period of the validity of his/her temporary residence permit.

Against the decision of the Ministry of Internal Affairs on refusal of extension of temporary residence permit, a foreigner has a right to lodge a complaint with the competent Commission of the Government of the Republic of Macedonia within 8 (eight) days as from the date of receipt of such a decision.

The decision of the competent Commission of the Government of the Republic of Macedonia shall be brought within 30 (thirty) days as from the date of lodging such a complaint.

Against the decision of the competent Commission of the Government of the Republic of Macedonia an administrative dispute may be initiated in front of a competent court in accordance with the Law on Administrative Disputes.

II. 2 Temporary residence for different purposes

a) Temporary residence for employment, work and self-employment

Article 58

Temporary residence permit for purposes of employment, work or self-employment may be issued if the foreigner concerned submits a work permit or other required permit as stipulated by law together with his/her application for temporary residence, unless ratified international agreements provide otherwise.

The permit as of paragraph 1 of this Article shall be issued for a period corresponding to the period of validity of the work permit but maximum for one year with a possibility to be extended, provided conditions as under Article 57 of this law are fulfilled.

b) Temporary residence for purposes of attending school or studies

Conditions for issue of permit

Article 59

Temporary residence permit for purposes of attending school or studies may be issued to a foreigner if together with his/her temporary residence application, s/he submits the following:

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

- a receipt certifying that s/he is a high school or regular university student at an educational institution of the Republic of Macedonia,
- a curriculum of the envisaged education in the Republic of Macedonia issued by the relevant educational institution in the Republic of Macedonia stating the duration of school or studies as well as the conditions for enrolment for each successive school or university year, and
- a proof of language skills or of enrolment in a course of the language used in the curriculum of the relevant educational institution in the Republic of Macedonia.

Validity of permit
Article 60

Temporary permit for purposes of attending school or studies shall be issued for a period of up to one year and it may be extended if the foreigner concerned fulfils the conditions as under Article 57 of this law as well as submits a receipt of the relevant educational institution confirming that s/he has achieved a significant progress in such an educational process.

Notwithstanding fulfilment of the conditions as under paragraph 1 of this Article, the permit shall not be extended if it is established that the foreigner concerned exceeds the number of working hours prescribed by law.

Temporary residence permit for purposes of attending school or studies may be extended for up to 1 (one) year upon expiry of the term prescribed for such an educational process.

In exceptional cases where well-founded reasons exist, a temporary residence permit may be extended even upon expiry of the term as of paragraph 3 of this Article, but maximum for one year.

Upon completion of school or studies based on which the temporary residence is granted, the foreigner concerned is obliged to leave the Republic of Macedonia.

A foreigner who stays in the Republic of Macedonia for purposes of attending school or studies may not be employed or work in the Republic of Macedonia.

As an exception to paragraph 6 of this Article a foreigner who stays for purposes of attending school or studies may be allowed to do short-term or subsidiary jobs as in accordance with the law.

c) Temporary residence for purposes of participation in international student/pupil exchange schemes

Conditions for issue of permit
Article 61

Temporary residence permit may be issued for purposes of participation in international student/pupil exchange schemes, if the foreigner concerned also submits the following:

- a proof that s/he is at the age from 16 to 26,
- a receipt issued by a state authority or an institution responsible for implementation of ratified international agreements on international student/pupil exchange which confirms the acceptance of the foreigner in such an international exchange as well as the duration of his/her participation in such a scheme, and
- a receipt issued by a state authority or an institution responsible for implementation of ratified international agreements on international student/pupil exchange which confirms the financial responsibility of such an institution to bear the costs related to the foreigner's subsistence, accommodation, school or studies, health insurance during his/her stay in the Republic of Macedonia as well as costs for his/her return.

Validity of permit
Article 62

Temporary residence permit for purposes of participation in international student/pupil exchange schemes shall be issued for a period of up to one year.

In exceptional cases where there are well-founded reasons, the permit as of paragraph 1 of this Article may be extended but maximum for one year.

The foreigner who stays in the Republic of Macedonia for purposes of participation in international student/pupil exchange schemes may not be employed or work in the Republic of Macedonia.

d) Temporary residence for purposes of specialization, vocational education or practical training

Conditions for issue of permit
Article 63

Temporary residence permit for purposes of specialization, vocational education or practical training may be issued if the foreigner concerned also submits a receipt issued by a relevant legal entity in or a competent authority of the Republic of Macedonia certifying as well as a program indicating the period of such a specialization, vocational education or practical training together with his/her temporary residence application.

Validity of permit
Article 64

Temporary residence permit for purposes of specialisation, vocational education or practical training shall be issued for a period of up to one year and it may be extended provided the conditions as under Article 57 of this law are fulfilled.

Upon expiry of the term of the curriculum for such a specialization, vocational education or practical training, the foreigner concerned is obliged to leave the territory of the Republic of Macedonia.

In exceptional cases where there are well-founded reasons, the permit as of paragraph 1 of this Article may be extended even upon expiry of the term of such a curriculum but maximum for one year.

e) Temporary residence for purposes of scientific research

Conditions for issue of permit
Article 65

Temporary residence permit for purposes of scientific research may be issued if the foreigner concerned together with his/her application also submits the following:

- a contract on scientific research concluded with a scientific institution which is entered in the registry of scientific institutions of the Ministry of Education and Science, the Macedonian Academy of Sciences and Arts or accredited and registered educational institution of the highest level in the Republic of Macedonia,
- an evidence on funding of a research project,

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

- a certified copy of the degree of his/her education (bachelor or master degree and other), and
- a receipt of the institution as of paragraph 1 indent 1 of this Article with which a contract confirming its financial obligation of bearing the costs related to the stay, health insurance as well as return of the foreigner conducting scientific research in the Republic of Macedonia is concluded.

Prior consent of the Ministry of Education and Science
Article 66

The scientific institutions in the Republic of Macedonia which are entered in the registry of scientific institutions of the Ministry of Education and Science, the Macedonian Academy of Sciences and Arts as well as an accredited and registered educational institution of the highest level may conclude a contract with a foreigner to conduct a scientific research activity provided that a prior consent of the Ministry of Education and Science to such a research project is obtained.

The institutions as of paragraph 1 of this Article are obliged to submit a receipt confirming their financial obligation for bearing costs related to the stay, health insurance and return of the foreigner concerned together with the request for consent.

The institutions as of paragraph 1 of this Article are obliged to make a report to the Ministry of Education and Science on the results of such a scientific research project within two (2) months upon expiry of the relevant contract..

Conditions for contract on scientific research
Article 67

A scientific institution which is entered in the registry of scientific institutions of the Ministry of Education and Science, the Macedonian Academy of Sciences and Arts as well as an accredited and registered educational institution of the highest level may conclude a contract with a foreigner to conduct a scientific research activity provided that the following conditions are fulfilled:

- a) the scientific research project is accepted by the competent bodies of the relevant institution upon establishment of:
 - the aim, duration and budgets for such a project,
 - the qualifications of the foreigner concerned related to the purpose of such a research confirmed by a certified copy of his/her diploma.
- b) the foreigner concerned possesses sufficient subsistence means during his/her stay in the Republic of Macedonia as well as for his/her return, and
- c) the foreigner concerned has a health insurance in the Republic of Macedonia.

Validity of residence permit
Article 68

Temporary residence permit for purposes of scientific research shall be issued for a period of up to one year and it shall be extended provided that conditions as under Article 57 of this law are still fulfilled.

Upon expiry of the term of a scientific research project as determined in the contract the foreigner concerned is obliged to leave the territory of the Republic of Macedonia.

f) Temporary residence for purposes of medical treatment

Conditions for issue of permit
Article 69

Temporary residence permit for purposes of medical treatment may be issued if the foreigner concerned together with his/her temporary residence application also submits the following:

- a receipt issued by a health institution of the Republic of Macedonia which provides the medical treatment stating the period of such a treatment as well as possible post-medical treatment,
- a receipt issued by the health institution of the Republic of Macedonia as of paragraph 1 indent 1 of this Article confirming that its reception of the foreigner concerned for medical treatment shall be of no harm to the patients who are citizens of the Republic of Macedonia, and
- an evidence proving that the funds for such a treatment are to be borne either by the foreigner him/herself or his/her country of origin.

Validity of permit
Article 70

Temporary residence permit for purposes of medical treatment shall be issued for a period of up to one year and it may be extended if conditions as under Article 57 of this law are fulfilled.

Upon completion of the medical as well as possible post-medical treatment, the foreigner is obliged to leave the territory of the Republic of Macedonia.

g) Temporary residence for purposes of family reunification

Right of family reunification
Article 71

A foreigner, who is a holder of a permanent or temporary residence permit for purposes of employment, work or self-employment or a foreigner who is from the Republic of Macedonia by origin and such a permit is issued for one year, shall be granted the right of family reunification with the members of his/her close family who are foreigners, under the conditions and in accordance with this law.

Close family members
Article 72

Close family member, in the context of this law, shall mean a foreigner who is:

- a spouse of the foreigner concerned, and
- minor children of the foreigner or his/her spouse including his/her or his/her spouse's adopted children or minor children being under the custody of the foreigner or his/her spouse as decided by a verdict or decision by the country where adoption or custody was made as well as certified by a competent authority of the Republic of Macedonia.

Minor children must be at the age of up to 18 and not married.

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

As an exception to paragraph 1 of this Article, close family members shall also be considered to be:

- first-degree relatives in the direct ascending line of the foreigner or his/her spouse in case of dependants not enjoying appropriate family support in the domicile country,
- the foreigner's or his/her spouse's children who are of legal age but who are not married and are unable to take care of their needs due to health reasons, and
- parents of a minor child if it is to the best interests of the child.

Rights of close family members
Article 73

A close family member of a foreigner who is a holder of temporary residence permit in the Republic of Macedonia, shall have a right to education, vocational education, employment and self-employment under the conditions as stipulated by law.

Conditions for issue of permit
Article 74

Temporary residence application for close family members may also be submitted by the foreigner who is a holder of residence permit in the Republic of Macedonia and it may be submitted with the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

The foreigner is obliged to submit together with the application as of paragraph 1 of this Article evidence on the following:

- his/her legal stay in the Republic of Macedonia,
- his/her family relationships,
- stable and regular subsistence means sufficient for him/herself as well as for his/her close family members who intend to stay in the Republic of Macedonia,
- ensured accommodation for his/her close family members,
- personal health insurance as well as health insurance for his/her close family members, and
- certified copies of their travel documents.

In case of application for temporary residence for the foreigner's or his/her spouse's minor children as under paragraph 1 indent 2 Article 72 of this law and the parental right is shared, together with the application as of paragraph 1 of this Article the foreigner concerned must also submit the consent of the other parent to be certified by a competent authority in the country in which the other parent resides.

Temporary residence permit based on family reunification shall not be issued if there are grounds for suspicion that the marriage with a foreigner holding a residence permit in the Republic of Macedonia or that the adoption of or custody over minor children is contracted solely for purposes of entry or stay in the Republic of Macedonia.

In case of polygamous marriage where the foreigner holding a residence permit in the Republic of Macedonia has a spouse with whom s/he cohabits on the territory of the Republic of Macedonia, family reunification with other spouse shall not be allowed.

Validity of permit
Article 75

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

A close family member of a foreigner holding a temporary residence permit in the Republic of Macedonia shall be issued a temporary residence permit with validity of up to one year and it may be extended for the corresponding period as of the permit of the foreigner.

A close family member of a foreigner holding a permanent residence permit shall be issued a temporary residence permit with validity of up to one year and it may, under the conditions stipulated by this law, be extended until requirements for permanent residence are met.

Apart from the grounds as under paragraph 2 Article 57 of this law, the permit as of paragraph 1 of this Article shall not be extended in case it is established that:

- the foreigner and his/her close family members do not cohabit in a real matrimony or family union, and
- there are grounds for suspicion that the marriage with the foreigner holding a residence permit in the Republic of Macedonia or the adoption of or custody over minor children is contracted for convenience.

The Ministry of Internal Affairs may also extend the temporary residence permit of the persons as under paragraph 1 and 2 of this Article in case the foreigner concerned passes away or the matrimony ceases after lasting for minimum three (3) years on the territory of the Republic of Macedonia as well as when especially difficult circumstances require so.

The temporary residence permit as of paragraph 4 of this Article presents an autonomous residence permit.

Marriage of convenience
Article 76

Marriage of convenience shall, in the context of this law, mean a marriage contracted between a citizen of the Republic of Macedonia or a foreigner who is a legal resident of the Republic of Macedonia and a foreigner, solely for purposes of avoiding entry and stay requirements as stipulated by this law as well as obtaining a residence permit in the Republic of Macedonia.

Grounds for suspicion for marriage of convenience exist especially if:

- the spouses are not cohabitants,
- there is a lack of a proper contribution in the context of marriage responsibilities,
- contradictory information on personal data of the spouse (name and surname, address, nationality, job and other) as well as on circumstances relating to their first meeting or other important personal information are supplied,
- the spouses had not meet each other before they entered marriage,
- the spouses do not speak a language which both of them understand,
- there is a payment of certain amount of money as for marriage conclusion, with an exception of the money brought as dowry in case the foreigner comes from a country where giving dowry is a custom,
- the past of one of the spouses or both spouses includes evidence on previous marriages of convenience or residence irregularities, and
- there are other circumstances indicating that such a marriage is a marriage of convenience.

The grounds for suspicion as under paragraph 2 of this Article may be established from the statements of the persons concerned or of third parties, written documentation or checks made by the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

g) Temporary residence of foreigners as close family members of a citizen of the Republic of Macedonia
Article 77

A foreigner who is a close family member of a citizen of the Republic of Macedonia, under the conditions as stipulated as well as in accordance with this law, is entitled to temporary residence in the Republic of Macedonia.

A citizen of the Republic of Macedonia who has a registered residence place may submit a temporary residence application for his/her close family members.

A citizen of the Republic of Macedonia may also submit the application as of paragraph 2 of this Article with the Ministry of the Internal Affairs.

Temporary residence permit of the persons as of paragraph 1 of this Article shall be issued for a period of up to one year and it may be extended under the conditions as stipulated by this law.

The temporary residence of the persons as of paragraph 1 of this Article may independently be extended in case the citizen of the Republic of Macedonia passes away or the marriage ceases after lasting for at least 3 (three) years on the territory of the Republic of Macedonia as well as when especially difficult circumstances require so.

The permit as of paragraph 1 of this Article shall neither be issued nor extended if it is established that there is a grounded suspicion that the marriage with a citizen of the Republic of Macedonia is a marriage of convenience.

The minor who was born on the territory of the Republic of Macedonia and one of his/her parents is a citizen of the Republic of Macedonia and the other parent is a foreigner holding a temporary residence permit in the Republic of Macedonia at the time of his/her birth, but who does not have a citizenship of the Republic of Macedonia, is not required to possess residence permit in the first six months of his/her life.

Upon application of a citizen of the Republic of Macedonia supplied with a consent of the other parent, the Ministry of Internal Affairs shall issue a permanent residence permit to the minor as of paragraph 7 of this Article after six months from his/her birth.

h) Temporary residence of foreigner who is from the Republic of Macedonia by origin

Conditions for issue of the permit
Article 78

A foreigner who is from the Republic of Macedonia by origin may be issued a temporary residence permit if s/he fulfils the conditions for issue of temporary residence permit as stipulated in the Article 50 of this law.

The permit as of paragraph 1 of this Article shall be issued for a period of up to one year and it may be extended if the foreigner concerned fulfils the conditions as of Article 57 of this law.

Residence of foreigner's children born in the Republic of Macedonia
Article 79

A foreigner's child who was born in the Republic of Macedonia and is not a citizen of the Republic of Macedonia, is not required to hold a residence permit during the first 6 (six) months of his/her life.

Upon an application submitted by one of the parents or a guardian holding a temporary residence permit in the Republic of Macedonia and upon consent of the other parent, the

THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

Ministry of Internal Affairs shall issue the child as of paragraph 1 of this Article a temporary residence permit for a period of up to one year after six months from his/her birth.

The permit as of paragraph 2 of this Article may be extended upon an application submitted by one of the parents or a guardian and it may be extended for the corresponding period of validity of the temporary residence permit of one of the parents or the guardian.

In case one of the parents or the guardian of the child as of paragraph 1 of this Article holds a permanent residence permit in the Republic of Macedonia, after six months from his/her birth, upon application of the parent or the guardian and consent of the other parent, the child shall be issued a permanent residence permit in the Republic of Macedonia.

i) Temporary residence on humanitarian grounds
Article 80

Temporary residence permit on humanitarian grounds may be issued as an exception, to a foreigner who does not fulfil the conditions for issue of temporary residence permit as stipulated by this law in the following cases:

- if there are grounds for suspicion that s/he is a victim of the criminal act “trafficking in human beings” as laid down in the Criminal Code,
- if s/he is under 18 and is unaccompanied by a parent or guardian,
- if s/he is a stateless person, or
- other well-founded reasons of humanitarian nature.

The permit as of paragraph 1 indent 2, 3 and 4 of this Article shall be issued for a period of up to one year and it may be extended provided that the humanitarian grounds still exist.

I.1. Temporary residence of victims of trafficking in human beings

Period of decision-making
Article 81

A foreigner for whom there are grounds for suspicion to be a victim of the criminal act “trafficking in human beings” as stipulated in the Criminal Code, shall be enabled to make a decision within a period of 2 (two) months with a view to providing him/her protection and assistance in the process of recovery as well as avoiding influence of the perpetrators of such a crime. Within this period, the victim is to decide on either to co-operate with the competent authorities in detection of crimes and perpetrators or to return to the country whose citizen or legal resident s/he is.

As to the best interests of victims of trafficking in human beings who are minors under 18, the period as of paragraph 1 of this Article may be extended.

During the period as of paragraph 1 and 2 of this Article, the foreigner concerned may not be expelled from the Republic of Macedonia.

The period as of paragraph 1 of this Article may be interrupted if:

- the foreigner voluntarily, actively or on his initiative renews his/her contacts with suspects involved in such a crime, or
- reasons of public order and national security of the Republic of Macedonia require so.

The Ministry of Internal Affairs shall bring a decision on interruption of decision making period against which the foreigner has a right to lodge a complaint to the competent Commission of the Government of the Republic of Macedonia within 8 (eight) days as from the date of the receipt of such a decision

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

The decision of the competent Commission of the Government shall be brought within 30 (thirty) days as from the date of lodging a complaint.

Against the decision of the competent Commission of the Government an administrative dispute may be initiated in front of a competent court in accordance with the Law on administrative disputes.

Conditions for issue of temporary residence permit and validity

Article 82

Upon expiry of the period of decision-making as of Article 81 of this law or earlier if the competent authorities estimate that the foreigner shows a clear intention to co-operate, the foreigner who is a victim of trafficking in human beings may be issued a temporary residence permit if:

- his/her stay in the Republic of Macedonia is necessary for conducting court proceedings,
- s/he shows a clear intention to co-operate with competent state authorities in detection of such crimes and the perpetrators, and
- s/he has broken his/her relations with the suspects involved in such a crime.

The permit as of paragraph 1 of this Article shall be issued for a period of up to 6 (six) months and it shall be extended provided that the conditions as laid down in paragraph 1 of this Article are met.

Deprivation of right to temporary residence

Article 83

A foreigner who is a victim of trafficking in human beings shall be deprived of his/her right to temporary residence if s/he no longer meets the conditions for temporary residence as laid down in Article 82 of this law, and especially if:

- the foreigner as of paragraph 1 of this Article actively, voluntarily or on his initiative renews his/her contacts with the suspects involved in such a crime or it is established that the foreigner's co-operation with the state authorities is false or fraudulent,
- reasons of protection of public order and nationality security of the Republic of Macedonia require so,
- the foreigner as of paragraph 1 of this Article stops co-operating with the state authorities in detection of such crimes and perpetrators, or
- the competent state authorities decide to stop the relevant proceedings.

II.3. Cessation of temporary residence

a) Deprivation of the right to temporary residence

Reasons for deprivation of the right to temporary residence

Article 84

A foreigner who stays up to 3 (three) months or holds a temporary residence permit, except for temporary residence permit for victims of trafficking in human beings, may be deprived of the right to temporary residence, if:

- s/he is sentenced to a minimum of three-month imprisonment,

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

- s/he no longer has subsistence means and accommodation or such means and accommodation are not ensured in any other legal way during his/her stay in the Republic of Macedonia,
- it is established that s/he was aware of supplying false information or not revealing the purpose and circumstances relevant to issue of temporary residence permit or when false, another person's or invalid documents have been used,
- it is additionally established that s/he does not or no longer fulfils the conditions for issue of temporary residence permit,
- his/her stay is contrary to the indicated purpose and circumstances of stay,
- s/he refuses to comply with the decisions of the state authorities,
- s/he commits a violation to the provisions of this law,
- it is established that s/he has stayed out of the territory of the Republic of Macedonia for unjustified reasons for more than one quarter of the period of validity of his/her temporary residence permit,
- s/he is issued a temporary residence permit for purposes of family reunification but it is established that s/he does not cohabit with the principle person in a real matrimony or family union, or
- there are grounds for suspicion that the marriage with a foreigner holding a residence permit or a citizen of the Republic of Macedonia is a marriage of convenience or there is a suspicion that such a marriage is not contracted upon will of either of the two parties.

In the decision-making process concerning deprivation of the right to temporary residence, the length of stay of the foreigner concerned in the Republic of Macedonia, his/her personal, economic or other relations with the Republic of Macedonia as well as consequences that may arise from such a decision affecting him/her or his/her family shall be taken into account.

Prior to bringing a decision, a foreigner shall be required to make a statement on the circumstances which are relevant for such a decision.

As an exception, a foreigner shall not be deprived of the right to temporary residence if the degree of seriousness of the act committed as well as the foreigner's relations with the Republic of Macedonia indicate that such a deprivation shall have disproportionately difficult consequences for the foreigner or his/her close family members residing legally in the Republic of Macedonia.

Competence for decision-making
Article 85

Decision on deprivation of the right to temporary residence shall be brought by the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

The decision as of paragraph 1 of this Article shall indicate the time limit within which the foreigner is obliged to leave the territory of the Republic of Macedonia.

Against the decision as of paragraph 1 of this Article a foreigner has a right to lodge a complaint with the competent Commission of the Government of the Republic of Macedonia within 8 (eight) days as from the date of receipt of such a decision.

Such a complaint submitted by the foreigner who stayed on the territory of the Republic of Macedonia for a period of up to 3 (three) months or based on temporary residence permit for less than 3 (three) years shall not have a suspension effect on the decision.

The provision as of paragraph 4 of this Article does not apply for a foreigner whose child has a legal residence on the territory of the Republic of Macedonia cohabiting together in a household.

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

The decision of the competent Commission of the Government shall be brought within 15 (fifteen) days as from the date of lodging a complaint.

Against the decision of the competent Commission of the Government an administrative dispute may be initiated in front of a competent court in accordance with the Law on Administrative Disputes.

Deprivation of the right to temporary residence shall be entered in the foreigner's travel document.

b) Cessation of temporary residence permit
Article 86

Temporary residence permit shall cease to be valid if:

- the foreigner is expelled from the Republic of Macedonia,
- the foreigner is deprived of the right to temporary residence,
- upon expiry of the granted period of his/her temporary residence in the Republic of Macedonia s/he does not apply for extension of his/her temporary residence permit,
- the foreigner relinquishes his/her temporary residence permit as from the date of his/her statement on such a relinquish, or
- when the foreigner acquires the citizenship of the Republic of Macedonia.

III. Stay based on permanent residence permit

Permanent residence permit
Article 87

Permanent residence permit shall be issued to a foreigner who, prior to application for permanent residence, has stayed on the territory of the Republic of Macedonia for an uninterrupted period of minimum 5 (five) years on the basis of a temporary residence permit.

The condition of an uninterrupted five-year period of stay in the Republic of Macedonia as laid down in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be deemed as fulfilled if within the period of 5 (five) years prior to application for permanent residence the foreigner concerned does not stay out of the territory of the Republic of Macedonia for a period of subsequent 6 (six) months or for a total period not exceeding 10 (ten) months.

Permanent residence permit shall not be issued to a foreigner who has stayed in the Republic of Macedonia:

- based on temporary residence permit for purposes of attending school or studies,
- based on temporary residence permit for purposes of participation in international student/pupils exchange programme,
- based on temporary residence permit for purposes of specialization, vocational education or practical training,
- based on temporary residence permit for purposes of scientific research,
- based on temporary residence permit for purposes of medical treatment,
- based on residence permit on humanitarian grounds,
- based on temporary protection,
- as a recognised refugee or an asylum-applicant for whose application there is no final decision in a procedure as defined by law, and
- based on a legal status as regulated by the 1961 Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations, 1963 Vienna Convention on Consular Relations or Vienna

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

Convention on Representations of States in Their Relations with International Organisations of Universal Nature.

Permanent residence permit for purposes of employment, work or self-employment may be issued to a foreigner who possesses high or deficit qualifications or education necessary for operation of the relevant institution in or authority of the Republic of Macedonia.

Permanent residence permit based on family reunification may be issued only to close family members of a foreigner who has previously obtained a permanent residence permit provided that they live together in a real matrimony or family union.

A foreigner whose residence is relevant to the interests of the Republic of Macedonia may be issued a permanent residence permit prior to expiry of the time limit as laid down in paragraph 1 of this Article.

The Ministry of Internal Affairs shall issue the permanent residence permit to the foreigner concerned in person.

Rights of foreigner holding permanent residence permit
Article 88

A foreigner holding a permanent residence permit in the Republic of Macedonia shall enjoy the same rights as those of the citizens of the Republic of Macedonia, unless other law provides otherwise, such as:

- stay in the Republic of Macedonia for an indefinite period of time,
- access to employment or self-employment,
- education and professional training, including university education,
- recognition of professional diplomas, certificates and other qualifications,
- social protection and social support,

- during his/her stay in the Republic of Macedonia within the period of 5 (five) years prior to application for permanent residence s/he has not committed a crime which is punishable by minimum 1 (one) year of imprisonment, and
- does not present a threat to the public order, national security or international relations of the Republic of Macedonia.

Procedure on issue of permanent residence permit
Article 90

Permanent residence permit shall be issued upon an application of a foreigner.

The foreigner concerned is also obliged to submit a valid and recognised travel document or its certified copy as well as evidence proving that conditions as laid down in paragraph 1, indent 1 to 5 Article 89 of this law are fulfilled, together with the application as of paragraph 1 of this Article.

The Ministry of Internal Affairs shall bring a decision upon an application for permanent residence.

In case of rejection of a foreigner's application for reasons as under paragraph 1 indent 6 Article 89 of this law, the competent authority is not obliged to explain the reasons taken into consideration for such a decision.

Against the decision as of paragraph 3 of this Article the foreigner has a right to lodge a complaint with the competent Commission of the Government of the Republic of Macedonia within 8 (eight) days as from the date of receipt of such a decision.

The decision of the competent Commission of the Government shall be brought within 30 (thirty) days as from the date of lodging a complaint.

Against the decision of the competent Commission of the Government an administrative dispute may be initiated in front of a competent court in accordance with the Law on Administrative Disputes.

III. 1. Cessation of permanent residence

b) Deprivation of the right to permanent residence
Article 91

A foreigner who stays in the Republic of Macedonia on the basis of a permanent residence permit may be deprived of the right to permanent residence, if:

- s/he is sentenced to imprisonment of minimum 1 (one) year,
- it is established that s/he was aware of supplying false information or not revealing the purpose and circumstances relevant to issue of permanent residence permit, or
- it is established that s/he has stayed out of the territory of the Republic of Macedonia for an uninterrupted period of more than 12 (twelve) months without consent of the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

The Ministry of Internal Affairs may express its consent for a stay out of the territory of the Republic of Macedonia for a period longer than 12 (twelve) subsequent months without being deprived of the right to permanent residence thereby, where the length of the foreigner's stay in the Republic of Macedonia as well as the purpose and circumstances of his/her stay out of the country shall be taken into consideration.

In the decision-making process concerning deprivation of the right to permanent residence, the length of the foreigner's stay in the Republic of Macedonia, his/her age, personal, economic and other relations with the Republic of Macedonia as well as consequences resulting from such a decision affecting him/her or his/her close family shall be taken into consideration.

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA

Prior to bringing a decision, a foreigner shall be required to make a statement on the circumstances of relevance for such a decision.

A foreigner shall not be deprived of the right to permanent residence if the degree of seriousness of the act committed and his/her relations with the Republic of Macedonia indicate that such a deprivation shall have disproportionately difficult consequences for him/her or his/her close family members legally staying on the territory of the Republic of Macedonia.

Competence for decision-making
Article 92

The Ministry of Internal Affairs shall bring a decision on deprivation of the right to permanent residence.

The decision as of paragraph 1 of this Article shall indicate the time limit within which the foreigner is obliged to leave the territory of the Republic of Macedonia.

Against the decision as of paragraph 1 of this Article a foreigner has a right to lodge a complaint with the competent Commission of the Republic of Macedonia within 8 (eight) days as from the date of receipt of such a decision.

The decision of the competent Commission of the Government shall be brought within 30 (thirty) days as from the date of lodging a complaint.

Against the decision of the competent Commission of the Government an administrative dispute may be initiated in front of a competent court in accordance with the Law on Administrative Disputes.

The deprivation of the right to permanent residence shall be entered into the foreigner's travel document.

c) Cessation of permanent residence permit
Article 93

Permanent residence permit of a foreigner shall cease to be valid if:

- s/he is expelled from the Republic of Macedonia,
- s/he is deprived of the right to permanent residence,
- s/he relinquishes his/her permanent residence permit as from the date of his/her statement on such a relinquish, and
- s/he acquires the citizenship of the Republic of Macedonia.

IV. Form and contents of residence permit
Article 94

Temporary residence permit shall be issued as a sticker to be attached in the travel document of a foreigner or as a separate document.

Permanent residence permit shall be issued as a separate document.

Residence permit shall contain:

- number of the permit,
- name and surname of the holder,
- period of validity,
- date and place of issue,
- type of residence permit,
- photograph of the holder,

- optic variable ink.

In case of separate document, apart from data as of paragraph 3 of this Article, the permit shall also contain the following particulars of its holder:

- date and place of birth,
- citizenship,
- sex,
- single registry number, and
- biometrical identification data.

The residence permit shall contain in-built security features.

Article 95

Permanent residence permit issued as a separate document to a foreigner under 25 (twenty-five) shall be valid for 7 (seven) years, as for those from 25 (twenty-five) to 50 (fifty) for 15 (fifteen) years and for those over 50 (fifty) it shall be valid on a permanent basis.

Temporary residence permit issued as a separate document shall be valid for a corresponding period as of the decision on grant of temporary residence but no longer than one year.

Obligation of carrying residence permit

Article 96

A foreigner is obliged to carry his/her residence permit with him/her.

Obligation of applying for substitute of residence permit

Article 97

A foreigner is obliged to submit an application for substitute of residence permit in case:

- it is damaged or well-worn or it is no more usable for its purpose as a result of any other reasons,
- if the foreigner has changed his/her name, or
- when the period of its validity as of paragraph 1 Article 95 of this law expires.

A foreigner is obliged to submit an application for substitute of residence permit within maximum 15 (fifteen) days as from the date of occurrence of any of the reasons as under paragraph 1 of this Article.

Obligation to return residence permit

Article 98

Upon expiry of his/her residence permit, in cases as under Article 86 and Article 93 of this law, the foreigner is obliged to return such a permit to the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

V. Limitations or prohibition of movements of foreigners

Article 99

The Government of the Republic of Macedonia may limit or prohibit any movements of foreigners within certain areas or may prohibit permanent or temporary residence in certain areas by a separate general document where reasons for security or defence of the Republic of Macedonia require so.

VI. Illegal stay

Article 100

A foreigner stays illegally in the Republic of Macedonia if:

- s/he enters the country with no authorisation;
- s/he does not possess a valid and recognised travel document supplied with a visa or residence permit,
- his/her visa is annulled, revoked or its validity is reduced,
- upon expiry of visa validity,
- s/he is deprived of the right to residence,
- s/he stays longer than 3 (three) months in any half-year period as from the date of first entry into the Republic of Macedonia and is not subjected to visa requirement, or
- his/her asylum application is rejected and does not leave the territory of the Republic of Macedonia within the specified period.

The provision as of paragraph 1 indent 1 of this Article does not apply for a foreigner for whom there is a grounded suspicion to be a victim of a criminal act “trafficking in human beings” in case the unauthorised entry is a consequence of such a criminal act.

The provision as of paragraph 1 indent 1 of this Article does not apply for an applicant for asylum in the Republic of Macedonia in accordance with the Law on Asylum and Temporary Protection.

CHAPTER V
EXPULSION AND DEPORTATION

I. Expulsion

Reasons for expulsion

Article 101

A foreigner may be expelled from the Republic of Macedonia if:

- s/he is sentenced to imprisonment of minimum one year,
- s/he presents a serious threat to the public order, national security or international relations of the Republic of Macedonia,
- there are serious reasons to believe that s/he committed serious crimes, especially crimes related to production and releasing narcotic drugs, psychotropic substances and precursors or there is a solid evidence of his/her intention to commit such crimes on the territory of the Republic of Macedonia,
- reasons for public health require so,

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

- s/he stays illegally in the Republic of Macedonia,
- s/he commits several repeated or serious violations of the provisions of this law.

The provision of paragraph 1 indent 4 of this Article shall not apply if the foreigner's illness which is a risk to the public health occurs 3 (three) months after his/her entry into the Republic of Macedonia.

In the decision-making process concerning expulsion of a foreigner from the Republic of Macedonia the length of foreigner's stay in the Republic of Macedonia, his/her personal, economic or other relations with the Republic of Macedonia as well as the consequences arising from such a decision affecting him/her or his/her close family members legally staying on the territory of the Republic of Macedonia shall be taken into account.

The provision as of paragraph 1, 2 and 3 of this Article does not apply for a foreigner seeking protection from the Republic of Macedonia in accordance with the Law on Asylum and Temporary Protection.

Expulsion of foreigners enjoying special protection
Article 102

A foreigner who has permanent residence in the Republic of Macedonia as well as a foreigner who is a spouse of a citizen of the Republic of Macedonia whose stay is based on temporary residence may be expelled from the Republic of Macedonia only if s/he:

- is sentenced to imprisonment of minimum 3 (three) years, and
- presents a serious threat to the public order, national security or international relations of the Republic of Macedonia.

A foreigner as of paragraph 1 indent 1 of this Article shall not be expelled if the degree of seriousness of the crime committed as well as his/her relations with the Republic of Macedonia indicate that such an expulsion shall have disproportionately difficult consequences for him/her or his/her close family members legally staying on the territory of the Republic of Macedonia.

Competence for decision-making
Article 103

The Ministry of Internal Affairs shall bring a decision on expulsion of a foreigner from the Republic of Macedonia.

The decision as of paragraph 1 of this Article shall contain the time limit within which the foreigner concerned is obliged to leave the territory of the Republic of Macedonia as well as the period of entry ban which may not be less than 6 (six) months nor longer than 5 (five) years.

In determining the time limit for leaving the territory of the Republic of Macedonia, the period necessary for the foreigner to obtain the required documents or financial means for leaving the Republic of Macedonia shall be taken into account.

In case of expulsion for reasons of national security, the competent authority is not obliged to explain the reasons taken into account for such a decision.

The decision as of paragraph 1 of this Article shall specify that if the foreigner does not leave the country within the specified period on a voluntary basis, s/he shall be deported from the Republic of Macedonia.

Against the decision as of paragraph 1 of this Article a foreigner has a right to lodge a complaint with the competent Commission of the Government of the Republic of Macedonia within 8 (eight) days as from the date of receipt of such a decision.

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

The complaint against the decision as of a foreigner staying illegally in the Republic of Macedonia or staying for a period of up to 3 (three) months or based on a temporary residence permit for less than 2 (two) years shall not have a suspension effect on such a decision.

The provision as of paragraph 7 of this Article shall not apply for a foreigner who has children staying legally on the territory of the Republic of Macedonia and cohabiting together with the principal person in a household.

The decision of the competent Commission of the Government shall be brought within 15 (fifteen) days as from the date of lodging a complaint.

Against the decision of the competent Commission of the Government an administrative dispute may be initiated in front of a competent court in accordance with the Law on Administrative Disputes.

The measure of expulsion, the time limit for leaving the territory of the Republic of Macedonia as well as the period of entry ban shall be entered into the foreigner's travel document.

Entry ban
Article 104

A foreigner, who is expelled from the Republic of Macedonia upon a decision of the Ministry of Internal Affairs, may not enter the country within the period of his/her entry ban in the Republic of Macedonia.

As an exception of paragraph 1 of this Article, if there are well-founded reasons, upon an application, the foreigner may be allowed an entry into the Republic of Macedonia even prior to expiry of his/her entry ban but only for short-term visits.

The application as of paragraph 2 of this Article shall be submitted with the Ministry of Internal Affairs through diplomatic or consular mission of the Republic of Macedonia abroad.

II. Voluntary return and deportation
Article 105

A foreigner, who is obliged to leave the territory of the Republic of Macedonia upon a decision of the Ministry of Internal Affairs, is obliged to leave on a voluntary basis immediately or within the specified period.

The voluntary return, in the context of this law, is assisted or independent return of the foreigner to his/her country of origin, a transit or a third country which is based on his/her free and informed decision regardless of the fact that the alternative of such a decision is his/her deportation.

A foreigner who shall not act upon as in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article or if certain circumstances indicate that s/he has no intention to leave the territory of the Republic of Macedonia on a voluntary basis, s/he shall be deported from the Republic of Macedonia.

A foreigner may be deported from the territory of the Republic of Macedonia only if the decision on his/her obligation to leave the country is executive.

A foreigner who is pronounced a penalty or an offence sanction of expulsion shall be immediately deported from the country.

Procedure of deportation
Article 106

A foreigner who must, in accordance with this law, be deported from the country shall be taken by the authorised officials of the Ministry of Internal Affairs to the state border, sent over the border, handed over to the representatives of the country whose citizen s/he is or to representatives of the country from which s/he arrives.

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

If well-founded reasons require so, the foreigner may be transferred to a third country and not to his/her country whose citizen s/he is.

Prior to the procedure of deportation the foreigner is subjected to a medical examination of his/her state of health.

Prohibition of deportation
Article 107

A foreigner may not be deported to a country where:

- his/her life or freedom would be threatened due to his/her race, religion or nationality, membership of a social group or political opinion, or
- s/he would be subjected to torture, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.

Temporary detention in the Reception Centre for foreigners within the Ministry of Internal Affairs
Article 108

For purposes of ensuring of deportation, a foreigner may be detained by the Ministry of Internal Affairs for maximum 24 (twenty-four) hours.

In case deportation is impossible for any reasons within the time limit as laid down in paragraph 1 of this Article, the Reception Centre for foreigners of the Ministry of Internal Affairs is established (hereinafter referred to as: the Reception Centre).

The Ministry of Internal Affairs shall bring a decision on temporary detention of the foreigner as of paragraph 2 of this Article in the Reception Centre.

In the Reception Centre a foreigner may also be temporarily detained if there is a decision on his/her expulsion but s/he does not possess a valid or recognised travel document where the Ministry of Internal Affairs shall bring a decision on his/her temporary detention.

Against the decision as of paragraph 3 and 4 of this Article a foreigner has a right to lodge a complaint with the competent Commission of the Government of the Republic of Macedonia within 8 (eight) days as from the date of receipt of such a decision.

The complaint shall not have a suspension effect on such a decision.

The decision of the competent Commission of the Government shall be brought within 15 (fifteen) days as from the date of lodging the complaint.

Against the decision of the competent Commission of the Government an administrative dispute may be initiated in front of a competent court in accordance with the Law on Administrative Disputes.

Article 109

A foreigner shall be temporarily detained in the Reception Centre until reasons preventing his/her deportation from the Republic of Macedonia cease to exist, but not longer than 12 (twelve) months.

In case of a foreigner for whom there is a decision on his/her expulsion but s/he does not possess a valid or recognised travel document, s/he shall be detained in the Reception Centre until s/he obtains such a document from the country whose citizen s/he is or is issued a passport as of Article 119 paragraph 2 of this law.

A foreigner may not leave the Reception Centre, unless there are well-founded reasons as well as upon a consent of a competent authority.

Article 110

A foreigner who may not be deported as well as a foreigner as of Article 108 paragraph 4 of this law, provided s/he has ensured subsistence means and accommodation in the Republic of Macedonia and based on the relevant circumstances it can be estimated that foreigner's accommodation in the Reception Centre is unnecessary, the Ministry of Internal Affairs may bring a decision on limitation of movements only within his/her residence place with an obligation to report him/herself timely and regularly to the nearest police station.

Against the decision as of paragraph 1 of this Article a foreigner has a right to lodge a complaint with the competent Commission of the Government of the Republic of Macedonia within 8 (eight) days as from the date of receipt of such a decision.

The decision of the competent Commission of the Government of the Republic of Macedonia shall be brought within 30 (thirty) days as from the date of lodging the complaint.

Against the decision of the competent Commission of the Government an administrative dispute may be initiated in front of a competent court in accordance with the Law on Administrative Disputes.

Costs for deportation
Article 111

Costs arising from a foreigner's temporary detention in the Reception Centre as well as other costs arising from his/her deportation shall be borne by the foreigner him/herself.

In case the foreigner has no means, the costs shall be borne by the carrier which brought him/her on the territory of the Republic of Macedonia without a valid and recognised travel document or with a travel document supplied with no visa or residence permit, if required.

In case the costs are not to be borne by the carrier as in accordance with paragraph 2 of this Article such costs shall be borne by the individual who has obliged him/herself to bear the costs during the foreigner's stay in the Republic of Macedonia.

In cases where no means can be ensured in any way as under paragraph 1, 2 and 3 of this Article, such costs shall be covered by the Budget of the Government of the Republic of Macedonia.

III. Special rules for unaccompanied minors

Measures related to minors
Article 112

In case a minor person, who is a foreigner under 18, enters the territory of the Republic of Macedonia contrary to the provisions of this law and is unaccompanied by his/her parents or a guardian, or, upon his/her arrival in the Republic of Macedonia s/he is left unaccompanied and does not apply for asylum, the authorised officials of the Ministry of Internal Affairs shall immediately inform the diplomatic or consular mission of the country whose citizen s/he with a view to establishing his/her close family members.

In case it is impossible to deliver such a minor immediately to the authorities of the country whose citizen s/he is due to objective reasons, s/he shall be accommodated in the special unit for minors within the Reception Centre and the Centre for Social Affairs shall be informed to that effect.

The minor as of paragraph 1 of this Article shall be provided with a guardian in accordance with the Law on Family.

THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA
THE MINISTRY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

During his/her accommodation in the Reception Centre, the minor shall be provided with legal aid, social support and medical and psychological care and shall have a right to education in the educational institutions of the Republic of Macedonia.

Special protection
Article 113

A minor person who is a foreigner may not be returned to his/her country of origin or to a third country which agrees to accept him/her, until appropriate conditions for his/her admission are not provided in that country.

The minor person may not be returned to a third country where his/her return would be contrary to the Convention on the Rights of the Children, the Convention of Protection against Torture, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment or the Convention on Protection of the Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms.
