Article 3, section 22 of the 2011 Children's Law enshrines the right of children to be protected from violence during armed conflict, and prohibits the recruitment of child soldiers. |

| 53. | Accepted | Liberia believes that the Children’s Law domesticates the vast majority of the provisions of the CRC, but acknowledges the need to undertake further review to ensure that this and other laws are in conformity with the CRC. |

| 57. | Accepted | A draft Domestic Violence Act was submitted to the Legislature in August following the submission of the national report in 2015. |
| 58. | Accepted | Liberia has already done so through article 4 of the Children’s Law. |

| 75. | Noted | It is not the policy of the State to discriminate based on LBGT status. However, the Government must proceed with caution due to the religious and cultural climate of Liberia in this regard.
