Medical benefits: None.

Government

Cash sickness and maternity benefits: None.

Medical benefits: The total cost.

Qualifying Conditions

Cash sickness benefits (employer liability): Must have at least one month of continuous employment.

The employee must accumulate a sufficient number of paid sick days to cover the leave period. Paid sick days accumulate at the rate of two days for each complete month of employment during the first 12 months of employment and four days for each month of employment thereafter, up to 120 days. The sick leave period must last at least four consecutive days, and the employee must provide an appropriate medical certificate issued by a registered medical practitioner or dentist.

Cash maternity benefits (employer liability): Must have at least 40 weeks of continuous employment. The employee must provide notice to the employer of her intention to take maternity leave after the pregnancy has been confirmed by a registered medical practitioner.

Medical benefits (social assistance): Aged 15 to 59, in ill health, and a resident of Hong Kong for at one year. The one-year residence does not have to be continuous or immediately before claiming the benefit. Benefits are income tested and asset tested on an individual basis if living alone; if living with other family members, the total income and assets of all family members are taken into account for determining eligibility.

Must be assessed with a limited working capacity or as incapable of work by a public medical officer.

Sickness and Maternity Benefits

Sickness benefit (employer liability): 80% of the employee's normal earnings is paid for the number of paid sick days accumulated by the employee.

Maternity benefit (employer liability): 80% of the employee's normal earnings is paid for 10 weeks from two to four weeks before the expected date of childbirth or from the date of childbirth if it occurs earlier.

Medical benefits (social assistance): HK$3,055 a month is paid for a person living alone or HK$2,880 a month if living with other family members; plus special grants to meet the beneficiary's other needs.

Workers' Medical Benefits

Medical benefits (social assistance): Free medical treatment is provided in public hospitals and clinics through the Comprehensive Social Security Assistance program.

Dependents' Medical Benefits

Medical benefits for dependents are the same as those for workers.

Administrative Organization

Employer liability: Labour Department (<http://www.labour.gov.hk>) administers the program.

Social assistance: Social Welfare Department (<http://www.swd.gov.hk>) administers the program.

Work Injury

Regulatory Framework

First and current law: 1953 (employee's compensation ordinance).

Type of program: Employer-liability system through private carriers.

Coverage

Employees, including household workers, agricultural employees, and crew members of Hong Kong ships.

Exclusions: Home-based workers, family helpers, certain casual workers, and self-employed persons.

Source of Funds

Insured person: None.

Self-employed person: Not applicable.

Employer: The total cost. (The minimum coverage is HK$100 million for employers with up to 200 employees or HK$200 million for employers with more than 200 employees.)

Government: None.

Qualifying Conditions

Work injury benefits: There is no minimum qualifying period.

Temporary Disability Benefits

80% of the difference between the employee's monthly earnings before and after the accident is paid for up to 36 months, after which a disability is considered permanent.

The employee's monthly earnings used to calculate benefits are the earnings in the month immediately before the accident or average monthly earnings in the last 12 months before the accident, whichever is higher.

A registered medical practitioner or an Employees' Compensation Assessment Board appointed by the Commissioner for Labour assesses the incapacity for work.

Benefit adjustment: Employees' monthly earnings are adjusted according to the average rate of earnings increase of employees in similar employment with the same employer or, if there are no such employees, according to the rate of increase in the consumer price index at the end of each 12-month period that the worker receives a temporary disability benefit.

Permanent Disability Benefits

Permanent disability grant: For a total disability (100%), a lump sum of 48 months of the insured's earnings is paid if aged 56 or older; 72 months if aged 40 to 55; or 96 months if younger than age 40.

The insured's earnings used to calculate benefits are the earnings in the month immediately before the accident or average monthly earnings in the last 12 months before the accident, whichever is higher.

The maximum monthly earnings used to calculate benefits are HK$23,580 (2012).

The minimum lump sum for a permanent total disability is HK$386,110 (2012), regardless of age.

The maximum lump sum for a permanent total disability is HK$1,131,840 if aged 56 or older; HK$1,697,760 if aged 40 to 55; or HK$2,263,680 if younger than age 40 (2012).

Partial disability: A percentage of the full benefit is paid according to the assessed degree of disability and a schedule in law.

Constant-attendance supplement: The actual cost of constant attendance, up to HK$462,890 (2012), is paid as a lump sum or as periodic payments for up to two years.

An Employees' Compensation Assessment Board appointed by the Commissioner for Labor assesses the degree of disability.

Workers' Medical Benefits

Medical benefits include examination and treatment by a registered medical practitioner, dental care, physical therapy, chiropractic services, and appliances.

The maximum limits on employers' liability for treatment costs are HK$200 a day for inpatient care or outpatient care, or HK$280 if both types of care are needed during the same day. The maximum limit for appliances is initially HK$33,460; HK$101,390 for subsequent repair and renewal of the appliance (2012).

Survivor Benefits

Survivor grant: A lump sum of 36 months of the deceased's earnings is paid if the deceased was aged 56 or older; 60 months if aged 40 to 55; or 84 months if younger than age 40.

The deceased's earnings used to calculate benefits are earnings in the month immediately before the accident or average monthly earnings in the last 12 months before the accident, whichever is higher.

The maximum monthly earnings used to calculate benefits are HK$23,580 (as of July 21, 2012).

The minimum lump sum is HK$340,040 (as of July 21, 2012), regardless of age.

The maximum lump sum is HK$848,880 if the deceased was aged 56 or older; HK$1,414,800 if aged 40 to 55; or HK$1,980,720 if younger than age 40 (as of July 21, 2012).

Eligible survivors include the deceased's spouse, children, parents, grandparents, and other family members who had been living with the deceased for at least 24 months immediately before the accident. The grant is split among eligible survivors. The amount paid to each survivor depends on the number and type of eligible survivors (with the spouse and children receiving the major share of the benefit in all cases). If the only survivors are the spouse and children, 50% of the grant is paid to the spouse, and 50% is split equally among the children.

Funeral grant: A lump sum is paid to the person who paid for the funeral, up to HK$70,000.

Administrative Organization

Labour Department (<http://www.labour.gov.hk>) administers the employer-liability program.

Employers purchase insurance policies with private insurance carriers.
