

IDP Movements Map

(K: thousand)

December 2019 Updates

In December 2019, the humanitarian community tracked about 308,200 IDPs movements across Syria. The vast majority of these movements were recorded as people fled from their communities in the southern parts of Idleb governorate to other parts of Idleb governorate or to Aleppo governorate due to the escalation of hostilities. Most of those who were in displaced December -about 214,500 movements- chose to move to other areas within Idleb governorate. The second largest population movement recorded in December 2019 was in Aleppo governorate with around 84,000 movements, including 81,900 people arriving from Idleb governorate and 2,100 IDPs from within Aleppo governorate. The third largest movement in December was recorded in Al-Hasakeh governorate with about 5,000 movements of which 4,800 movements from within the governorate while the rest were from Ar-Raqqa governorate to Al-Hasakeh. Ar-Raqqa is the fourth governorate with around 2,100 movements which are all from within Ar-Raqqa governorate.

Governorate Summary

(K: thousand)

