

WEEKLY HIGHLIGHTS

Last week, clashes and fighting continued across South-East Myanmar causing new displacement, particularly in Kayah State, Shan State (South) and Tanintharyi Region, as reported by media sources.<sup>(*)</sup>

Increased returns were reported to Loikaw and Demoso townships in Kayah State, and Pekon Township in Shan State (South).

This brings the current estimated number of people to have been displaced since post-1 February across South-East Myanmar to 166,700.

WEEKLY DISPLACEMENT FIGURES<sup>(2)</sup> SOUTH-EAST (04 OCT - 15 NOV)

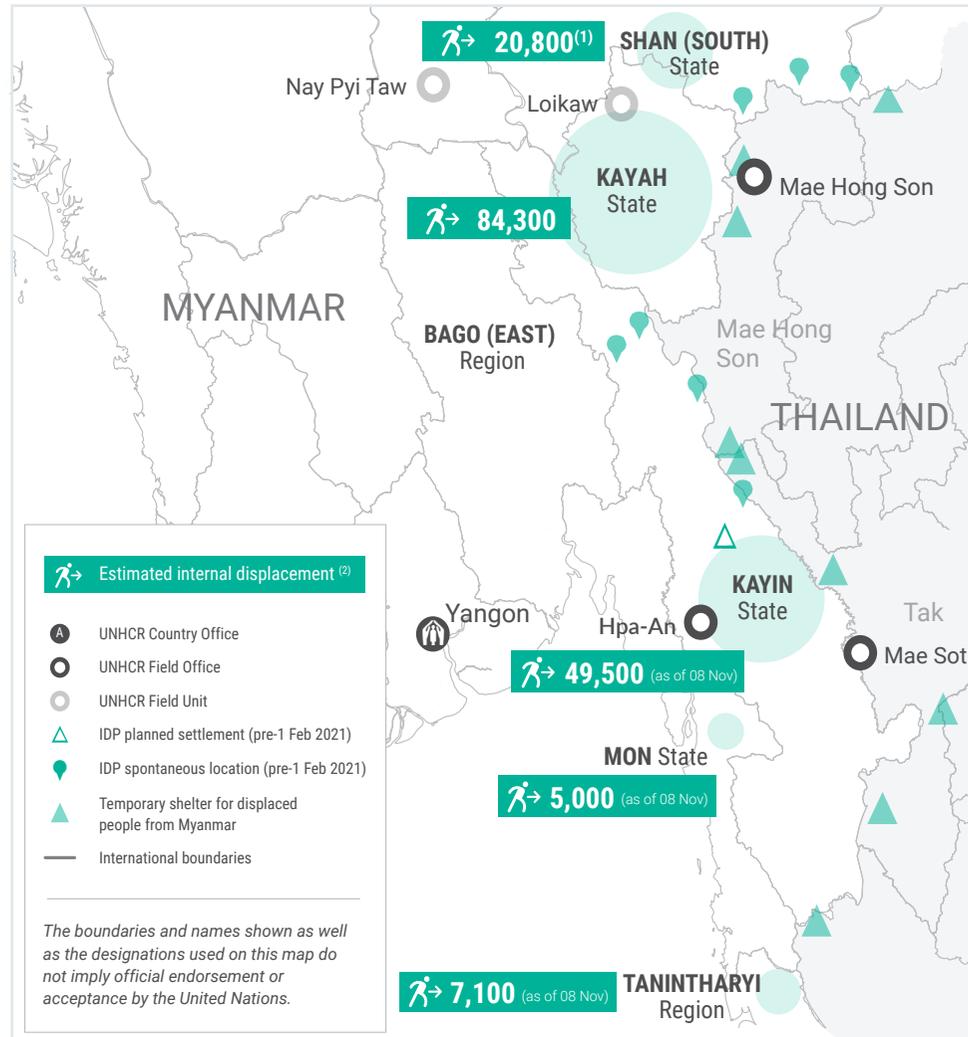

□ Tot. No. of current IDPs in SE (by week)

<sup>(*)</sup> While a decrease in the overall displacement of about 2,700 persons was observed in the South-East, this is largely due to UNHCR's reporting methodology which does not incorporate unverified figures. Displacement figures reported by media sources are currently under verification and will be incorporated in due course.

 166,700
